

---

The Green By Nature™...Build With Conscience Compliance Certification Program was established by Timber Holdings USA as a corporate initiative designed to assist building product users in establishing a comprehensive Environmental Best Practices approach to the specification and sourcing of building products.

To comply with “Green By Nature Certificate of Compliance Guidelines, Policies and Procedures”, a product carrying our Green By Nature™ certificate of compliance and on product labeling must...

be derived from a naturally occurring, renewable and sustainable resource.

be 100% organic having grown without the use of genetic modification or chemical fertilization.

have a useful service life which exceeds its natural growth cycle.

sequester and store carbon throughout its useful service life cycle.

generate zero post industrial and post consumer non biodegradable waste.

be 100 percent biodegradable at the end of its useful service life returning to nature as natural organic waste.

not require for service any petroleum based or inorganic chemical treatments, bonding agents or coatings.

not require for service any high energy consumptive thermal or chemical modification.

be safe for contact with humans and animals.

not require for service, any specialized handling, storage or disposal procedures.

meet Low VOC emission standards being free from any inorganic off-gassing.

be used, reused or recycled without the use of chemical processing.

not be listed in CITES (Convention on the International Trade of Endangered Species) Appendixes I or II.

be derived from member countries of the ITTO (International Tropical Timber Trade Organization) having signed the ITTA (International Tropical Timber Trade Agreement) be harvested from forest areas where traditional or civil rights are not violated.

be harvested from areas where natural forest has not been converted for plantations or non forest use.

be third party verified as having been harvested legally and sourced in compliance with all national and international laws and regulations pertaining to the trade of wood products and more specifically in compliance with the "U.S. Buy American Act" and "U.S. Lacey Act", meeting Legal and Due Care compliance requirements as defined by the U.S. Department of Commerce and U.S. Department of Agriculture.

"This particular company has done everything it can and is doing the right thing from an environmental point of view."

Dr. Patrick Moore - Greenpeace Cofounder and Green Spirit Strategies Founder